

Autism Brown Bag Dinner Series

Parents, professionals, students, and concerned individuals are welcome.
Bring your own dinner (beverages provided) and participate in a discussion about children with special needs.

Thursday, Feb. 28, 2008
6 to 8 p.m.

Advocating for Children with Special Needs

James Lafferty

Legislative Committee Chairman of Parents of Autistic Children-NV

RSVP by Feb. 26, 2008 540/286-8026 or
nmyers@umw.edu

Thursday, March 27, 2008
6 to 8 p.m.

Dealing with Non-Compliant Behavior

Benjamin C. Mauro, Ph.D., BCBA

Director of Consultative Services, Positive Behavioral Dynamics LLC

RSVP by March 25, 2008 540/286-8026 or
nmyers@umw.edu

University Hall • College of Graduate and Professional Studies
University of Mary Washington • 125 University Boulevard
U.S. 17, North • Fredericksburg, Virginia

These free events are sponsored by the University of Mary Washington, which offers a Certificate in Teaching Students with Autism and Board Certified Associate Behavior Analyst Course Sequence.

Check out the Center for Autism Resources for Educators (CARE) website at www.careumw.com for the latest autism related activities, autism resources, and additional information on our upcoming Autism Brown Bag Dinners.

Visit Alar on the CARE website:
www.careumw.com